

Before reading and throughout the play, we will take notes on the characters to lessen the confusion. It is very hard to remember all these characters when they don't have names. We should keep track of traits as well as what they vote throughout the play.

Juror 1	Juror 2	Juror 3	Juror 4	Juror 5	Juror 6
-Foreman -likes the responsibility and does well - Assistant football coach in H.S. - smart	-pushover -doubtful -timid -banker, married, son @ home and is sick	-strongly opinionated -sadist?? - estranged son	- Broker - wealthy - logical	-Baseball Fan 4th - Not Guilty - nurse in Harlem - grew up in a slum - knows about switchblade knives	-Paints houses - takes a long time to form an opinion - NOT guilty - listens
Juror 7	Juror 8	Juror 9	Juror 10	Juror 11	Juror 12
-quick to form an opinion with no facts -salesman type - Baseball Tickets! - bully, coward	-constantly seeks the truth -wants justice -strength, compassion -1st to vote NOT Guilty -Architect - 2 kids	-old man, gentle -waiting to die -would have been able to speak up more if he were younger -2nd Vote - NOT Guilty	-angry, bitter -bigot -self centered -impatient -is nowhere, going nowhere -works on cars	-refugee from Europe/Germany -Watchmaker -seeks justice -3rd to vote Not Guilty	-superficial snob -Advertisement Executive