According to the text on page 10 , The man in the yellow hat is a tall man that always wears the color yellow He is George's owner, best friend and mentor. He is a reassuring parental presence who trusts George unconditionally, never expecting him to get into trouble. He's as well organized as one can be with a monkey in the house; well liked in the neighborhood; and a little goofy around the edges. In their spare moments, he and George can be found playing checkers or reading a book together.
